

CHOICE FOR VOICE 2010

Multidisciplinary Approaches to Performance, Health and Research in Voice

A 3-day conference presented by the British Voice Association and the Royal Academy of Music

15th, 16th and 17th July 2010 at the Royal Academy of Music, London

The conference programme will include presentations from invited speakers, workshops, free papers, masterclasses, posters and an exhibition.

For more information email:
administrator@britishvoiceassociation.org.uk (please note new email address)

Or write to: The Administrator,
The British Voice Association,
330 Gray's Inn Road, London WC1X 8EE, UK.

Programme details and other information
(when available) will be posted on the BVA website (see below for conference web address).

CALL FOR PAPERS AND WORKSHOPS
(deadline 30 Nov 2009)

Summary of requirements and Submission Form available at:

www.britishvoiceassociation.org.uk/
choiceforvoice2010

CONFERENCE TOPICS:

- Voice care
- Vocal problems and quality of life
- Professional voice problems
- Vocal problems and performers
- Vocal issues in the workplace
- Public speaking and voice in the theatre
- Acoustic analyses of voice
- Perceptual analyses of voice
- Speaking pedagogy
- Singing pedagogy:
 - Classical
 - Gospel
 - Jazz
 - Pop & Rock
- Voice and personality

- Voice and emotion
- Voice disorders and therapeutic practice
- Medical aspects of voice disorders
- Complementary medicine & voice care
- Stroboscopy and imaging techniques
- Phonosurgery
- Singing and the injured voice
- Voice and aging issues
- Musculoskeletal issues and voice
- Voice therapy techniques
- Extreme voice use
- Approaches to pop & rock

www.britishvoiceassociation.org.uk